

COLLECTIVE

Play Summit | Symposium

When: 14 April 2014, 10am–6pm
Where: Doges, Templeton on the Green

Cost: £30 | £20 concession
Tickets: playsummit.eventbrite.co.uk

Programme

- 10am Welcome | Nils Norman
- 10.15am What is the value of Adventure Playgrounds? | Wendy Russell, Senior Lecturer in Play and Playwork, University of Gloucestershire
- 11am Adventure Play in Berlin | Marcus Schmidt, Kollé 37 Adventure Playground
- 11.45 Adventure Play in London | Mark Halden, Glamis Adventure Playground
- 12.30 Play Policy in Wrexham | Mike Barclay, Play Development Coordinator with Wrexham Council & Ben Tawil, Lecturer in Childhood and Family Studies, Glyndwr University
- 1.30 Lunch
- 2.30 Adventure Play in Scotland:
Meeting the Play Challenge in Scotland | Marguerite Hunter-Blair
Adventurous Play Across Scotland | introduced by Inspiring Scotland with PEEK, Broxburn Family Centre, Grounds for Learning, Aberdeen Play Forum
Baltic Street Adventure Playground | Robert Kennedy and Amica Dall
- 4pm Adventure Play in Japan | Hitoshi Shimamura, internationally-renowned playworker and founder of TOKYO PLAY
- 5pm Closing points | Nils Norman & Tim Gill
- 6pm Drinks | supported by PlayScotland

Play Summit is a collaboration between All Sided Games and Baltic Street Adventure Playground.
Programmed as part of Glasgow International 2014

All Sided Games is a series of off-site commissions, placing artists in and around venues built or used for the Edinburgh 1970 and 1986 Commonwealth Games and in venues to be used for the Glasgow 2014 Games. It brings people together to make work of mutual interest. Funded by the National Lottery through Creative Scotland

Baltic Street Adventure Playground is a VELOCITY project delivered by Assemble and Create London and is funded by Creative Scotland, Clyde Gateway and Glasgow City Council